

Add a Show:			List All Shows:
Client	System		Client	System
User requests to add a new show			User requests to see all available shows
User provides client ID, name of show, and date range				System retrieves the listing of shows
	Check if date range is available			Display the client name and dates to the user
	If range is ok, use input data to create a new show listing
	Inform user that the show was added
	Output the new show information
Store Data:			Retrieve Data
Client	System		Client	System
User requests to store all theater related data			User requests to retrieve all theater related data
	Stores an array of Clients onto the disk			Retrieves array of Clients from disk file
	Stores an array off Customers onto the disk			Retrieves array of Customers from the disk file
	Stores an array of Credit Cards onto the disk			Retrieves array off Credit Cards from the disk file
	Stores an array of all shows onto the disk			Retrieves array of all Shows from the disk file
	Informs user that storage was successful			Informs user that retrieval was successful